MEET THE FOUNDER

LAURIE CARDOZA MOORE

Founder • Advocate • Executive Producer

"WE CANNOT AFFORD TO LOSE THEM.
— AND UNDER HER LEADERSHIP,
PJTN IS ENSURING THAT WE DON'T."

A VOICE FOR TRUTH. A CHAMPION FOR ISRAEL.

Laurie Cardoza Moore is a nationally and internationally respected leader in the fight for truth, education, and Israel. On the frontlines against anti-Semitism and ideological battles shaping America's next generation, Laurie leads with courage, conviction, and unwavering faith.

FROM A MOTHER'S DISCOVERY TO A NATIONAL MOVEMENT

In the early 2000s, as a homeschooling mother of five, Laurie uncovered anti-Semitic, anti-American, and anti-Judeo-Christian content in textbooks. That discovery ignited her mission to expose indoctrination in classrooms and protect the integrity of American education—sparking reforms and national change.

BUILDING A GLOBAL PLATFORM FOR JUSTICE

With a background in media and film production and a passion for advocacy, Laurie founded PJTN in 2005 at her kitchen table. She led the passage of HJR 960—Tennessee's Resolution to support Israel—and has spearheaded anti-BDS initiatives in 47 U.S. states and several foreign nations.

EDUCATION REFORM LEADER

Founder of the Taking Back America's Children initiative, Laurie mobilizes parents nationwide to identify and challenge disinformation in curriculum. She has testified before state legislatures and boards of education across the U.S., exposing Holocaust Revisionism, anti-Semitic content, and historical inaccuracies.

TRUSTED ADVISOR & POLICY INFLUENCER

In 2019, Laurie convened experts to produce PJTN's White Paper Report on American Education, submitted to the U.S. Department of Education. She has consulted with state leaders, including Governor Ron DeSantis' team in Florida, and currently serves on the Tennessee Textbook and Instructional Materials Quality Commission.

HONORED. RESPECTED. COMMITTED.

Laurie holds an Honorary Doctorate in Theology and has received numerous honors including the Friend of Israel Award, Goodwill Ambassador to Israel Award, and recognition as one of the Top 100 People Positively Impacting Israel by Algemeiner.

LEADING PJTN INTO ITS THIRD DECADE OF IMPACT

Laurie continues to educate and activate Christians, Jews, and People of Conscience on our biblical responsibility to stand with Israel and combat anti-Semitism. Through PJTN's growing movement of Watchmen, her focus is clear: exposing the failures of education, countering propaganda, and preserving America's next generation of leadership.
